INTERNAL REVENUE.
PURSUANT to an appointment and commission as Deputy Collector of Excise Tax, under Philip D. Moore, Esq., Collector of the Washington Territory District, the Undersigned is now collecting the Internal Revenue in this portion of Idaho, for the two years ending May 1st, 1865. The law has exacted of me a bond in the penal sum of $20,000, which is on file in the Treasury Department, conditioned for the faithful discharge of my duty. It also requires every business man to take a license, and for neglect or refusal, fixes the penalty at three times the amount of the license, one hundred dollars, and two years imprisonment. For a failure to report correctly the number of animals butchered, the penalty is $10 per head. Three gallons is the line of demarcation between wholesale and retail in the liquor business, and one license will not cover both classes. Merchants selling original packages, are deemed wholesale dealers, those breaking packages, retailers, and one license will not cover both. Minors are not taxed as such, as has been falsely asserted, but, like all other kinds of business, they are liable to pay an income tax on all receipts above $200 and expenses.

BENJAMIN F. CROSS, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, Idaho City, May 10th, 1864. 38tf
